- 6.9 The User may agree with the posting post office that its personnel will calculate the prices and record them in Postage Registration Cards and prepare the decade statement on behalf of the User, at a price specified in the Pricelist valid as of the posting date. The receiving post office clerk will enter this price into the Postage Registration Card as the last item.

- 7.1 The Parties to the Agreement will complete the List of Outlets form, which includes relevant contact details and describes the structure and conditions for posting of consignments. They will subsequently confirm the completed form as of the day of signing the Agreement. The current version of the List of Outlets form is available on ČP’s website at www.ceskaposta.cz in the section “Advice and info/At posting/Documents and information for contractual partners.” The Parties to the Agreement agree to proceed in accordance with the information contained in the List of Outlets and keep all information accurate and valid. - 8.5 The unused part of the advance payment agreed in the Agreement will be returned back to the User within 30 days after the termination of the Agreement. Before its return, ČP is entitled to withdraw an amount of the advance payment corresponding to the amount of outstanding due debts of the User towards ČP.
- 8.6 If an advance payment is agreed in the Agreement, and if the deposited advance payment is clearly insufficient to cover the price for the postal services used by the User in the given billing period, ČP reserves the right to refuse to accept consignments under the conditions of the Agreement. - 10.16 Regardless of the day of the first pickup/delivery in the course of the month, the total monthly price will be calculated as the sum of monthly unit prices for each handover point plus fees for extraordinary drives to all handover points in the given month.
- 10.17 If ČP fails to pick up/deliver consignments at the agreed upon time interval, the User may request in writing a credit note to be issued by ČP for an amount equal to the difference between the service price (a product of the basic price and the agreed upon coefficients) and the price of actually provided services (a product of the basic price and the coefficients corresponding to the actually provided services), providing that the minimum charged price is the minimum unit price per handover point/per calendar month.

12. Other provisions

- 12.1 ČP is not obliged to enter into a postal contract in the meaning of sections 4 and 5 of the Postal Service Act whose subject-matter would be delivery of letters sent through another postal operator. The User acknowledges that if he posts consignments with ČP and intentionally does not inform ČP about the fact that any of the posted consignments come from another postal operator, he can thereby cause a damage to ČP and commit fraud.
- 12.2 The User is obliged to inform ČP about any consignments received by him or coming from any postal operator other than ČP and identify the operator. The User is released from his duty to inform ČP under the previous sentence in respect of any consignments coming from any postal operator other than ČP if, on request from ČP, he proves that he has received them from a third party other than a postal operator; that he has informed this party about his duty under the first sentence of this subclause; and, if the consignments have been received or come from another postal operator, that he has imposed the duty to inform the User about it. Should the User become aware that the information received from a third party other than a postal operator about the origin of the consignments is false, he is obliged to inform ČP as required under the first sentence of this subclause.
- 12.3 Should the User intentionally breach his duty to inform ČP about any consignments received or coming from any postal operator other than ČP and/or identify such operator, the User is obliged to pay to ČP a contractual fine of CZK 100 for each consignment in respect of which this duty has been breached.

13. Closing provisions

- 13.1 Either Party to the Agreement may terminate the Agreement without giving any reason; the term of notice is 1 month and starts running the day next to delivery of the notice to the other Party. A notice of termination must be made in writing. If the User refuses by a notice in writing to accept changes of the Pricelist, the Agreement will also be terminated by this notice of refusal of such changes. The period of notice will start running on the day of delivery of the notice to ČP and will end as of the effective date of the changes of the Pricelist. The notice must be delivered to ČP before the effective date of the changes. Notices of termination or of refusal of changes of the Pricelist must be made by the User in writing.

Should this period expire in vain, ČP has the right to withdraw from the Agreement.
- ČP may also withdraw from the Agreement if an insolvency procedure is started against the User or at any time while it lasts. In such case, the User will not be granted an additional 15-day period and ČP will be entitled to withdraw from the Agreement without prior notice.
- Any withdrawal from this Agreement takes effect and this Agreement becomes terminated on the day of delivery of the notice of withdrawal served in writing to the other Party. Mutual performances exchanged between the Parties until the withdrawal will not be returned, and the User will pay the price for services provided by ČP until the withdrawal.
- 13.3 If ČP decides to remove any of the services provided under the Agreement from its product portfolio, ČP will be entitled to discontinue the provision of such service(s) to the User. ČP will be obliged to inform the User about the change by publishing the information on ČP’s website at www.ceskaposta.cz at least 30 days in advance. This will not affect the duration of the Agreement in relation to the other provided services.
- 13.4 ČP is entitled to unilaterally transfer its rights and duties under the Agreement to its subsidiaries or other third parties. ČP will be obliged to inform the User about the change by publishing the information on ČP’s website at www.ceskaposta.cz at least 30 days in advance.

The Parties consider as trade secrets all competitively significant, identifiable, measurable and in the relevant business circles normally inaccessible facts connected with the Parties, whose owner – in his own interest – ensures their confidentiality in an adequate manner. For the purposes of the Agreement, trade secrets are mainly information about the existing contractual relationships between the Parties, payment terms, information about the manner to secure claims, data on the extent and volume of provided services, and the details that define the provided performance beyond publicly available information.
- 13.8 The duty of confidentiality exists until information of the above-mentioned nature becomes generally known, provided that it is not due to a breach of the duty of confidentiality. - 13.9 The Parties agree to maintain the confidentiality of information of the above-mentioned nature, not to disclose it or make it available to other entities, and to take necessary measures for their protection and prevention of leakage, including ensuring that it will be used only for activities related to the preparation and performance of the Agreement in accordance with the purpose specified in the Agreement.
- 13.10 Provision of the above-mentioned information to a court, state prosecutor, competent administrative authority or to another public authority pursuant to and in accordance with law, and its publication under a duty prescribed by law or provision to the founder of ČP does not constitute a breach of the duty of confidentiality. Neither does disclosure of the said information to a Party's representative constitute a breach of the duty of confidentiality.
- 13.11 The duty of confidentiality continues notwithstanding the termination of the contractual relationship established by the Agreement.
- 13.12 If any provision of the Agreement is fully or partially invalid or if any matter is not regulated by the Agreement, this does not affect the remaining provisions of the Agreement.
- 13.13 The rights and duties arising from the Agreement for each Party will pass onto their legal successors.
- 13.14 Any relationships that are not regulated by the Agreement will be governed by valid laws of the Czech Republic.
- 13.15 These GBTCfLs take effect on 15 January 2024, and ČP reserves the right to alter, amend, or cancel them by issuing new ones.
